

Dear Friends

February 25th 2004

I understand your incredulity as to the paragraph about AIDS transmission via saliva. I enclose some articles I wrote back in 1985 on the subject. I made a serious attempt to challenge the information put out by the Public Health Service. I sent the MODEL QUESTIONS to every major newspaper and magazine in the country, about 400 of them, and received one non-reply. I finally shelved my campaign after I realized that 1) at least half of the medical professionals did not believe the NO TRANSMISSION BY SALIVA assurance and were being ignored and / or derided as hysterical, unscientific etc. 2) people with a lot more influence than me were trying without success to raise the issue. At the time he wrote his column, Armstrong was the U.S. Senator for Colorado. In his column he quoted William Haseltine of Harvard Medical School: Anyone who tells you categorically that AIDS is not contracted by saliva is not telling you the truth. Obviously, if they could brush off a U.S. Senator and a Doctor from Harvard and ignore the report in The Lancet, they would have no difficulty in continuing to ignore me. I realized that the Warning I was trying to give had already been given, more or less. There was a bizarre episode later on which showed what people were up against. In March 1988, the well known sex research team of Masters and Johnson published a book in which they challenged the NOT TRANSMITTED BY CASUAL CONTACT / SALIVA assurance. Their publisher had set up a nation wide tour for them to publicize the book. Which began with a press conference in New York City. At which they encountered such hostility from the media--for breaking ranks as it were--that they canceled the rest of the tour !

As to the paragraphs about violent homosexuals, I am trying to discover and uncover the hidden springs of violence. I am trying to expose Structural Violence such as the complicity of the American People in war and abortion contra the image which Americans have of themselves. My 20 page paper of March 24th 1985 points out that homosexuals as individuals knowingly spread AIDS to other homosexuals. (13) What is that, if not violence ? The AIDS policies of Homosexual organizations have protected the homosexual lifestyle at the expense of the lives of homosexuals. (12) Homosexual organizations provide political and activist support for abortion. Activists from ACT UP and Queer Nation have attacked anti abortion activists in front of clinics.

The broader indictment is aimed at the prevailing left / liberal faith that Sexual Liberation is benign. Make Love Not War. Piece and Peace go together. Free Love is Nonviolent. This easy going fellow who likes to go to bed with women but does not like to be tied to a relationship or take responsibility for a pregnancy is mellow and laid back. He is nonviolent, isn't he ? Like abortion itself. The information about the Sexual Liberation ideology of both Communism and Fascism is necessary to an understanding of why those movements became so totalitarian and murderous. The crusade for a New World Order required 10 times as much violence. The mass murder in Cambodia came from a fanatical attempt to completely transform society via the original Communist ideology which includes the abolition of the family. In the second part of Roots I intend to show that 1) The Freemasons played a major role in both the American Revolution and the French Revolution 2) A neo-pagan and anti Christian push for Sexual Liberation was a major component of their ideology. 3) Which reappeared after the French Revolution in the extreme program of Fascism and Communism. 4) And was revived by the Women's Liberation Movement etc. of the 1960s. 5) And is firmly entrenched in modern society. Free Love & Abolish the Family and Religion were fundamentals of 19th century Communism. Sexual Liberation was basic to Zionism, which is a variety of National Socialism. The Pink Swastika by Scott Lively and Kevin Abrams describes the Nazi Party starting out in a homosexual bar. The pursuit of Power and Empire and the attack on family and community is driven by a concealed engine: the quest for a sexually liberated New World Order. The small aborted families of the Israelis are the major reason they cannot allow the Palestinians with their large families to return to their old villages. They would soon be out voted unless they abandoned any pretense of democracy.
